One young man who is trying his so-cial jimmy on society needs to be shown how things work in this city, and the hances are strong for his education in this line. It is true that rapid changes pany in the past, but when a man switches from the best girls of the place one night to the other kind a little later and appears in public with both types he is stretching tolerance too far.

"No news is good news," may be all very well when one is anxious, but it won't hold good in the society columns.

Then the entire main floor is devoted to the convenience of women, misses and children. Each department is under a department manager, who understands his business. No wonder we have grown. Simply by doing things right, and doing them all the time. We have been trying to keep abreast of the times and have succeeded, as far as volume of business is concerned. We intend keeping up the good work, and are open for suggestions from our friends and patrons. None of us are infallible. We all make mistakes.
